APMINISTRATIVE - INTERNAL USE ONLY

DD/A Registry

Approved For Release 2002/05/17 : CIA-RDP87-01130R000200010012-

16 September 1977

TATINTL  FROM  CHAITMAN, Fine Arts Commission  SUBJECT: Appointments for Membership on the Fine Arts Commission  1. The Fine Arts Commission received thirty responses to the call for membership applicants. A selection committee reviewed the credentials of the thirty and selected eight "finalists" for personal interviews. The interviews, held during the week of Sentember 13, were conducted by myself, on behalf of the FAC.  2. After careful consideration of the qualifications and motivations of the eight finalists, we have selected five that best fit the needs of the Commission. Their names, components, and areas of expertise are at annex.  3. I recommend that you appoint all five to the Commission. They will bring our membership to fourteen and will add to our ranks significant new and relevant expertise. In view of the planned increase in FAC activities and the inevitable absentee rate, I do not believe that fourteen is
I. The Fine Arts Commission received thirty responses to the call for membership applicants. A selection committee reviewed the credentials of the thirty and selected eight "finalists" for personal interviews. The interviews, held during the week of Sentember 13, were conducted by myself, pn behalf of the FAC.  2. After careful consideration of the qualifications and motivations of the eight finalists, we have selected five that best fit the needs of the Commission. Their names, components, and areas of expertise are at annex.  3. I recommend that you appoint all five to the Commission. They will bring our membership to fourteen and will add to our ranks significant new and relevant expertise. In view of the planned increase in FAC activities and the inevitable absentee rate, I do not believe that fourteen is
1. The Fine Arts Commission received thirty responses to the call for membership applicants. A selection committee reviewed the credentials of the thirty and selected eight "finalists" for personal interviews. The interviews, held during the week of Sentember 13, were conducted by myself, pn behalf of the FAC.  2. After careful consideration of the qualifications and motivations of the eight finalists, we have selected five that best fit the needs of the Commission. Their names, components, and areas of expertise are at annex.  3. I recommend that you appoint all five to the Commission. They will bring our membership to fourteen and will add to our ranks significant new and relevant expertise. In view of the planned increase in FAC activities and the inevitable absentee rate, I do not believe that fourteen is
1. The Fine Arts Commission received thirty responses to the call for membership applicants. A selection committee reviewed the credentials of the thirty and selected eight "finalists" for personal interviews. The interviews, held during the week of Sentember 13, were conducted by myself, by behalf of the FAC.  2. After careful consideration of the qualifications and motivations of the eight finalists, we have selected five that best fit the needs of the Commission. Their names, components, and areas of expertise are at annex.  3. I recommend that you appoint all five to the Commission. They will bring our membership to fourteen and will add to our ranks significant new and relevant expertise. In view of the planned increase in FAC activities and the inevitable absentee rate, I do not believe that fourteen is the Commission. Their names, components, and areas of expertise are at  3. I recommend that you appoint all five to the Commission. They will bring our membership to fourteen and will add to our ranks significant new and relevant expertise. In view of the planned increase in FAC activities and the inevitable absentee rate, I do not believe that fourteen is new and relevant expertise. In view of the planned increase in FAC activities and the inevitable absentee rate, I do not believe that fourteen is	the Commission. Their names, components, and areas of expertise are
4. I am in the process of within I in
4. I am in the process of writing letters of appreciation to everyone that responded to our call for applicants. They included a remarkable STA array of talents and interests.	TINTI
Attachment: a/s	·

Approved For Relies 2002 205/17: IQIA-RIZP87-01130 R000200010012-5

Approved For Relies 2002 2005/17: IQIA-RIZP87-01130 R000200010012-5

Approved For Relies 2002 2005/17: IQIA-RIZP87-01130 R000200010012-5

Approved For Relies 2002 2005/17: IQIA-RIZP87-01130 R000200010012-5

Approved For Relies 2000 2005/17: IQIA-RIZP87-01130 R000200010012-5

APMINISTRATIVE - INTERNAL USE ONLY Approved For Release 2002/05/17 : CIA-RDP87-01130R000200010012-5

APPOINTMENTS FOR MEMBERSHIP ON THE FINE ARTS COMMISSION

STATINTL	Name	Component	Expertise
		DDO/NE	Interior designing
		DDI/OER/ITSD/ITB	Fine arts and exhibits
i		DDI/OGCR/Cartography	Fine arts, interior decorating, architectural landscaping, graphic design
		HIC/Library	Educational technology and audio-visual techniques
		C/BSB/LSD/SI	Human factors psychology

STATINTL

approved 1977